MARRIED FORTY YEARS

Today is Fortieth Wedding Anniversary of Prominent Palestine Couple—Old Residents.

"Dad" Love, as he is known to his best friends, hale and hearty, and getting the best out of life at an age when most men are down and out, working every day as a faithful employee in the train service of the I. & G. N., loved and respected by all, told a Herald man that just forty years ago today, he and Mrs. W. Love were married. That was March 30, 1869, and it was a Tuesday, too, just as it is this month. Mr. and Mrs. W. Love are among our best people; they have lived here many years, and have reared a big family of manly men and womanly women. They are the parents of nine children living, and four dead, and have three living grandchildren. The couple have spent the day quietly, making no celebration, as some of the children are in distant towns and localities.

The Herald hopes they may live to celebrate many more anniversaries, and that their children and grandchildren may continue blessings and comforts to them.

Several Men Are Missing. Havana, March 30.—Three engineer Charles Hoppe and Second Mate Rudolph Harn and twelve seamen of the steamer Alterberg, burned during the Central dock fire yesterday, are missing today. It is feared they were burned or drowned.

One instantly grasps the meaning of these characters, but it often takes a lifetime to appreciate their value.

We want to assist some one to learn the worth of a dollar. How? By having them open an account with this bank, and encouraging them to add to it. Do you know of any one who ought to save? It's the first step that counts. One of the highest privileges of this institution is to encourage thrift and economy among the people and assist them in their efforts to save.

We are loaning free, to any person who wishes to save, a Home Savings Bank. Call and get one.
